

00179

1961/05/28

E 0006

F

INCOMING AIRGRAM

Department of State

ACTION COPY

PERMANENT RECORD COPY

57-53

Action

SECRET

B 0 1 5 1 3

PAGE 1 OF 2 PAGES

EUR

Classification

Date Sent: May 28, 1961

Rec'd:

Info

FROM: USRO/PARIS

SS

TO: SecState WASHINGTON

PASS DEFENSE

G

SP

NO: POLTO G 1823

L

H

REF: TOPOL 1526

SB

NEA

D

SAE

BFAC

PX

IOP

INR

RMR

The following preliminary analysis of reactions to our April 26 paper on NATO strategic and defense planning was prepared for USRO use and may be of interest to Washington.

Handwritten notes: RMR, Jole, Pen

375/5-2861

1100

X

Copy No(s) 114
Destroyed in RM/R
Name L R
Date 7/7/61

Drafted by: POL/Westirts 5/27/61

Authorized by: J. J. Wolf

SECRET

• This copy must be returned to RM/R central files with notation

CLASSIFIED FILE

ACTION	ACTION
ASSIGNED TO:	DEPARTMENT OF STATE A/CDC/WR
NAME OF OFFICER	REVIEWED BY: [Signature]
& OFFICE SYMBOL	DATE: 4/12/91

☒ RELEASE
☒ EXEMPT
☐ DENY
☐ DELETE
☒ Non-responsive info.

POL TO: [Signature]
 TS authority to:
 () CLASSIFY as _____, CADR
 () DOWNGRADE TS to () S or () C, OADR

POLTO SECSTATE WASHDC
 P-1323
 SECRET

XA

Turkey - The Turks are concerned at the implications of our April 26 proposal, fearing that the emphasis on conventional forces and on the pause may lead NATO to accept something close to the concept of limited warfare, may give the Russians the impression that we are less determined to oppose all forms of aggression than heretofore, and will leave the Turko-Russian border less secure. The Turkish Fontin's comments at the Oslo Ministerial meeting and subsequent conversation at SHAPE are evidences of this uneasiness.

XN

FILED

SECRET

09:45:00:0000

5